

ALDAPE ADVISED
HUERTA TO QUITMexican President Dismisses Minister of Interior.

IS CASE OF LIFE OR DEATH

Dictator Reiterates at Cabinet Meeting His Intention to Remain in Office and Rids Himself of the Only Member of His Official Family With Sufficient Courage to Discuss the Situation Frankly With Him.

Mexico City, Nov. 17.—It has been learned that the American charge had seen President Huerta and from the president himself had learned that he would not resign and would listen only to such proposals as were compatible with his own dignity and that of his country.

Mexico City, Nov. 17.—What doubt remained regarding General Huerta's intentions with respect to compliance to the American demands for his own elimination was removed from the minds of most Mexicans and foreign residents by his peremptory dismissal of Manuel Garza Aldape, minister of the interior, who was looked upon as the head of Huerta's cabinet.

Manuel Garza Aldape led that group of the cabinet, which held the conviction that it would be best to accede to that portion at least, of Washington's demands, which meant the total abandonment of power by the provisional president.

He is said to have been the only one with sufficient courage to discuss the international situation frankly with his chief.

It was he who called at the American embassy recently and induced Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the charge d'affaires, to send to Washington his appeal for the reopening of the negotiations.

Senor Aldape's resignation was demanded at a cabinet meeting at President Huerta's house.

Huerta is said to have reiterated at this meeting the statement that he would not resign, that with him it was a case of life or death and he was disposed to play out the game.

SITUATION IS NOT CRITICAL

Washington Officials Confident Huerta Will Retire.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Negotiations between Charge O'Shaughnessy and John Lind and the Huerta government in Mexico are continuing, according to dispatches received at the state department, but no tangible conclusions have been reported.

William Bayard Hale, who has been conferring with the Constitutionalists at their Nogales headquarters, also telegraphed at length to the department.

That the situation was not regarded as critical was evident from the attitude of official Washington.

The administration here is still confident of the ultimate retirement of Huerta, as well as satisfactory assurances from the Constitutionalists for a suspension of military activities pending the establishment of a provisional government after General Huerta disappears as a factor in the problem.

BURNING SHIP REACHES PORT

Water Soon Quenches Flames in Cotton Cargo.

Hamilton, Bermuda, Nov. 17.—The Spanish steamer Balmes, with her cotton cargo on fire, was towed into harbor by the tug Gladstone and Power, conveyed by the Cunard liner Pannonia. The Cunarder had on board 163 passengers of the Balmes, taken off the burning ship Friday morning in midocean while heavy seas were running after a race to the rescue in answer to wireless calls.

When the Balmes came to anchor in the harbor her hatches were lifted. Great clouds of smoke belched forth, but powerful pumps soon sent tons of water into her hold and extinguished the fire. The steamer is in good condition except for the damage done by the water and the fire in her cargo.

At the time of the shooting Haulala wore a gray cap. This undoubtedly cost him his life.

SUGGEST THAT U.S.
CEDE TERRITORYTwo Interesting Speeches In Congressional Record.

PEACE AND AGGRESSION.

Both Smith of Maryland and Murray of Oklahoma Favor Getting Rid of Some Possessions—Democrats Have Trouble in Efforts to Get All Plums. Long Session in Prospect.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 17.—[Special.]—Although the sessions of congress are short, neither house remaining in session long enough to transact any important business or engage in extended debates, there often appears in the Record interesting "leave to print" speeches.

Not long since one issue of this so called "Record" contained two speeches of remarkable character. They were by Democrats, one by Smith of Maryland and the other by Murray of Oklahoma. Only in two particulars were they similar. Both touched upon the possibility of Japanese aggression, and both suggested that we cede territory to foreign nations.

The Smith speech wanted to cede the thirty mile strip, 536 miles long, of southern Alaska to Canada. The Murray speech proposed that we cede the Philippines to Japan. Alaska was to be ceded because western Canada needed the seaboard and because it would make for good fellowship with England and be a model for the world to follow in promoting world's peace. Japan was to have the Philippines because the Japs needed lands for expansion and we do not want them to colonize in America.

Peace and Aggression.

The Smith speech wanted the United States to take the lead in forming a quadruple alliance which would include Great Britain, Germany and France and compel the balance of the world to maintain peace. The Murray speech wanted the United States to place a cordon of troops along the Mexican border, blockade every Mexican port with warships and after Mexico was starved out to take possession and run the country in the interests of the Mexicans. There are some visionaries among our lawmakers, it will be observed.

Piled Up Trouble.

The Democrats in an effort to get places for their party friends seem to have piled up trouble for themselves. They excepted from the civil service the places made necessary for the execution of the income tax collections. Then they followed this by taking certain deputies out of the civil service. Before that they had been overwhelmed with applications for places. Now the stream has been redoubled, and those who first applied are asking for action.

Speaking generally of many applications received, Congressman Sims of Tennessee told the house: "From reliable sources I learn that 3,000 applications have been received from one southern state for positions where there are only 350 vacancies in the whole country." That would indicate considerable pressure.

Survivors of the Fifty-first.

Looking from the press gallery the other day, the old timers mentioned that only one member of the house was left who was also a member of the famous Fifty-first, the Reed congress. There are other survivors, however, in the present senate. Lodge of Massachusetts, Clark of Wyoming, Bankhead of Alabama, Shively of Indiana, Mark Smith of Arizona, Stone of Missouri, Burton of Ohio and La Follette of Wisconsin were all members of the house during the Fifty-first congress. Warren of Wyoming was for a short time a member of the senate in the same congress.

Size of States.

The average eastern man does not have much conception of the area of some of the western states. A group was recently talking about size, and after Texas, known by all to be the biggest in area, no one seemed to have any conception of the relative sizes of other states. One man thought Nevada was a very small state, or at least small compared to a dozen others. Nevada was the third state in size, following California, until after the admission of Montana, New Mexico and Arizona, when she dropped to sixth place. Nevada still holds the last place in the matter of population.

Long Session in Prospect.

The regular session of the Sixty-third congress will begin in a little more than two weeks, and the prospect is that there will be a long session. The time in which congress has been nominally in session might have been utilized with many important matters of legislation which will have to be considered in the regular session, but now it will take a lot of time to conclude the business. In the first place, it will be a long time before the currency bill will pass the senate. Then there is the trust legislation to be considered, together with the various other bills which the president has in mind. Besides, the appropriation bills must be passed, which will take a great deal of time. It will be late summer before congress adjourns.

KILLS TWO CHILDREN

Woman Cut Down Before Being Seriously Hurt.

Johnstown, Pa., Nov. 17.—Charged with having garrotted her two children, boys, aged two and three years, respectively, and then attempting to hang herself, Mrs. Amelia Seabolt Banko, twenty-six years old, was lodged in jail accused of murder.

Mrs. Banko was staying at the home of her father. A noise was heard in the woman's room and investigation disclosed Mrs. Banko, with a man's belt drawn around her neck, suspended from a nail in the wall.

She was cut down before she had been seriously affected.

In the bed were the bodies of the two little boys with pieces of clothing tightly knotted around their necks.

The children had been dead some time when discovered. Examination disclosed the necks of both boys had been broken and the doctor expressed the belief that both necks had been severely twisted before the rope had been fastened.

Mrs. Banko had written a note, it was stated, but this had been destroyed by her father before its contents were made public. Mr. Seabolt declined to say what was in the note.

It is alleged that Mrs. Banko committed the crime because her husband, who is working in Bisbee, Ariz., has failed to send her money.

LIGHT STATIONS HIT HARD

Sustain Heavy Damage During Recent Gale on Lakes.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Fear is felt by the United States lighthouse service that Lightship No. 82 was sunk in the recent storm that swept the Great Lakes and is now lying beneath the waters of Lake Michigan. Reports reached the service that the tender Crocus had searched for the vessel in vain and that the waters yet were too rough to make an investigation beneath the surface. The commander of the Crocus was ordered to spare no pains in ascertaining at once the vessel's fate.

Heavy damage marked the passage of the gale among the light stations along the shores of Lake Michigan. Reports to the service announced that the fury of the storm was especially severe at Fort Gratiot, Pentwater, St. Joseph, Charlevoix and other points in Michigan; at Racine, Wis., and Michigan City, Ind., and Calumet Harbor, Ill. At the last named place the boat and boathouse were carried away and the fog signals were undermined by the waves and moved from their foundations.

Statutes May Be Amended to Meet New Currency Act.

GENERAL CHANGES PROBABLE

If Pending Currency Measure Becomes Law at Present Session of Congress the Next Meeting Will Take Up the Problem of Making Banking Laws Conform to the New Conditions.

Washington, Nov. 17.—With the administration currency bill due to be reported to the senate this week after a long delay a plan to revise the national banking laws to meet the new currency system has made its appearance in legislative circles.

It will include questions originally contemplated as a part of the currency bill, but set aside until the next session of congress, when a general revision of the banking laws has been promised by the administration.

In connection with this proposed revision congress will take up the far-reaching question of rural credits, the problem of providing cheaper money for the farmer who now mortgages his land at high rates of interest to obtain funds.

The rural credits commission, after an exhaustive investigation of the subject, is at work on a report to congress which will recommend a law on the subject. The commission expects to report early in the next session.

The Progressive anti-trust program, the main feature of the third party's legislative plans for the next session, is outlined in three bills which Representative Murdock of Kansas, Progressive leader of the house, will introduce.

They embody proposals to create an interstate trade commission to prohibit unfair competition and to suppress monopolies.

They are the joint production of Mr. Murdock, Dean William Draper Lewis of the University of Pennsylvania law school, Herbert Knox Smith, former commissioner of corporations, and Donald R. Richberg, director of the Progressive national legislative reference bureau.

ALDAPE ADVISED HUERTA TO QUIT

Mexican President Dismisses Minister of Interior.

IS CASE OF LIFE OR DEATH

Dictator Reiterates at Cabinet Meeting His Intention to Remain in Office and Rids Himself of the Only Member of His Official Family With Sufficient Courage to Discuss the Situation Frankly With Him.

Mexico City, Nov. 17.—It has been learned that the American charge had seen President Huerta and from the president himself had learned that he would not resign and would listen only to such proposals as were compatible with his own dignity and that of his country.

Mexico City, Nov. 17.—What doubt remained regarding General Huerta's intentions with respect to compliance to the American demands for his own elimination was removed from the minds of most Mexicans and foreign residents by his peremptory dismissal of Manuel Garza Aldape, minister of the interior, who was looked upon as the head of Huerta's cabinet.

Manuel Garza Aldape led that group of the cabinet, which held the conviction that it would be best to accede to that portion at least, of Washington's demands, which meant the total abandonment of power by the provisional president.

He is said to have been the only one with sufficient courage to discuss the international situation frankly with his chief.

It was he who called at the American embassy recently and induced Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the charge d'affaires, to send to Washington his appeal for the reopening of the negotiations.

Senor Aldape's resignation was demanded at a cabinet meeting at President Huerta's house.

Huerta is said to have reiterated at this meeting the statement that he would not resign, that with him it was a case of life or death and he was disposed to play out the game.

SITUATION IS NOT CRITICAL

Washington Officials Confident Huerta Will Retire.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Negotiations between Charge O'Shaughnessy and John Lind and the Huerta government in Mexico are continuing, according to dispatches received at the state department, but no tangible conclusions have been reported.

William Bayard Hale, who has been conferring with the Constitutionalists at their Nogales headquarters, also telegraphed at length to the department.

That the situation was not regarded as critical was evident from the attitude of official Washington.

The administration here is still confident of the ultimate retirement of Huerta, as well as satisfactory assurances from the Constitutionalists for a suspension of military activities pending the establishment of a provisional government after General Huerta disappears as a factor in the problem.

When the Balmes came to anchor in the harbor her hatches were lifted. Great clouds of smoke belched forth, but powerful pumps soon sent tons of water into her hold and extinguished the fire. The steamer is in good condition except for the damage done by the water and the fire in her cargo.

SUGGEST THAT U.S. CEDE TERRITORY

Two Interesting Speeches in Congressional Record.

PEACE AND AGGRESSION.

Both Smith of Maryland and Murray of Oklahoma Favor Getting Rid of Some Possessions—Democrats Have Trouble in Efforts to Get All Plums. Long Session in Prospect.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 17.—[Special.]—Although the sessions of congress are short, neither house remaining in session long enough to transact any important business or engage in extended debates, there often appears in the Record interesting "leave to print" speeches.

Not long since one issue of this so called "Record" contained two speeches of remarkable character. They were by Democrats, one by Smith of Maryland and the other by Murray of Oklahoma. Only in two particulars were they similar. Both touched upon the possibility of Japanese aggression, and both suggested that we cede territory to foreign nations.

The Smith speech wanted to cede the thirty mile strip, 536 miles long, of southern Alaska to Canada. The Murray speech proposed that we cede the Philippines to Japan. Alaska was to be ceded because western Canada needed the seaboard and because it would make for good fellowship with England and be a model for the world to follow in promoting world's peace. Japan was to have the Philippines because the Japs needed lands for expansion and we do not want them to colonize in America.

Peace and Aggression.

The Smith speech wanted the United States to take the lead in forming a quadruple alliance which would include Great Britain, Germany and France and compel the balance of the world to maintain peace. The Murray speech wanted the United States to place a cordon of troops along the Mexican border, blockade every Mexican port with warships and after Mexico was starved out to take possession and run the country in the interests of the Mexicans. There are some visionaries among our lawmakers, it will be observed.

Piled Up Trouble.

The Democrats in an effort to get places for their party friends seem to have piled up trouble for themselves. They expected from the civil service the places made necessary for the execution of the income tax collections. Then they followed this by taking certain deputies out of the civil service. Before that they had been overwhelmed with applications for places. Now the stream has been redoubled, and those who first applied are asking for action.

Speaking generally of many applications received, Congressman Sims of Tennessee told the house: "From reliable sources I learn that 3,000 applications have been received from one southern state for positions where there are only 350 vacancies in the whole country." That would indicate considerable pressure.

Survivors of the Fifty-first.

Looking from the press gallery the other day, the old timers mentioned that only one member of the house was left who was also a member of the famous Fifty-first, the Reed congress. There are other survivors, however, in the present senate. Lodge of Massachusetts, Clark of Wyoming, Bankhead of Alabama, Shively of Indiana, Mark Smith of Arizona, Stone of Missouri, Burton of Ohio and La Follette of Wisconsin were all members of the house during the Fifty-first congress. Warren of Wyoming was for a short time a member of the senate in the same congress.

Size of States.

The average eastern man does not have much conception of the area of some of the western states. A group was recently talking about size, and after Texas, known by all to be the biggest in area, no one seemed to have any conception of the relative sizes of other states. One man thought Nevada was a very small state, or at least small compared to a dozen others. Nevada was the third state in size, following California, until after the admission of Montana, New Mexico and Arizona, when she dropped to sixth place. Nevada still holds the last place in the matter of population.

Long Session in Prospect.

The regular session of the Sixty-third congress will begin in a little more than two weeks, and the prospect is that there will be a long session. The time in which congress has been nominally in session might have been utilized with many important matters of legislation which will have to be considered in the regular session, but now it will take a lot of time to conclude the business. In the first place, it will be a long time before the currency bill will pass the senate. Then there is the trust legislation to be considered, together with the various other bills which the president has in mind. Besides, the appropriation bills must be passed, which will take a great deal of time. It will be late summer before congress adjourns.

KILLS TWO CHILDREN AND TRIES SUICIDE

Woman Cut Down Before Being Seriously Hurt.

Johnstown, Pa., Nov. 17.—Charged with having garrotted her two children, boys, aged two and three years, respectively, and then attempting to hang herself, Mrs. Amelia Seabolt Banko, twenty-six years old, was lodged in jail accused of murder.

Mrs. Banko was staying at the home of her father. A noise was heard in the woman's room and investigation disclosed Mrs. Banko, with a man's belt drawn around her neck, suspended from a nail in the wall.

She was cut down before she had been seriously affected.

In the bed were the bodies of the two little boys with pieces of clothing tightly knotted around their necks.

The children had been dead some time when discovered. Examination disclosed the necks of both boys had been broken and the doctor expressed the belief that both necks had been severely twisted before the rope had been fastened.

Mrs. Banko had written a note, it was stated, but this had been destroyed by her father before its contents were made public. Mr. Seabolt declined to say what was in the note. It is alleged that Mrs. Banko committed the crime because her husband, who is working in Bisbee, Ariz., has failed to send her money.

Sustain Heavy Damage During Recent Gale on Lakes.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Fear is felt by the United States lighthouse service that Lightship No. 82 was sunk in the recent storm that swept the Great Lakes and is now lying beneath the waters of Lake Michigan. Reports reached the service that the tender Crocus had searched for the vessel in vain and that the waters yet were too rough to make an investigation beneath the surface. The commander of the Crocus was ordered to spare no pains in ascertaining at once the vessel's fate.

Heavy damage marked the passage of the gale among the light stations along the shores of Lake Michigan. Reports to the service announced that the fury of the storm was especially severe at Fort Gratiot, Pentwater, St. Joseph, Charlevoix and other points in Michigan; at Racine, Wis., and Michigan City, Ind., and Calumet Harbor, Ill. At the last named place the boat and boathouse were carried away and the fog signals were undermined by the waves and moved from their foundations.

Statutes May Be Amended to Meet New Currency Act.

GENERAL CHANGES PROBABLE

If Pending Currency Measure Becomes Law at Present Session of Congress the Next Meeting Will Take Up the Problem of Making Banking Laws Conform to the New Conditions.

Washington, Nov. 17.—With the administration currency bill due to be reported to the senate this week after a long delay a plan to revise the national banking laws to meet the new currency system has made its appearance in legislative circles.

It will include questions originally contemplated as a part of the currency bill, but set aside until the next session of congress, when a general revision of the banking laws has been promised by the administration.

In connection with this proposed revision congress will take up the far-reaching question of rural credits, the problem of providing cheaper money for the farmer who now mortgages his land at high rates of interest to obtain funds.

The rural credits commission, after an exhaustive investigation of the subject, is at work on a report to congress which will recommend a law on the subject. The commission expects to report early in the next session.

The Progressive anti-trust program, the main feature of the third party's legislative plans for the next session, is outlined in three bills which Representative Murdock of Kansas, Progressive leader of the house, will introduce.

They embody proposals to create an interstate trade commission to prohibit unfair competition and to suppress monopolies.

They are the joint production of Mr. Murdock, Dean William Draper Lewis of the University of Pennsylvania law school, Herbert Knox Smith, former commissioner of corporations, and Donald R. Richberg, director of the Progressive national legislative reference bureau.

SEVEN ILL OF TRICHINOSIS

Farmer and Six Children at Point of Death.

Stout Falls, S. D., Nov. 17.—As the result of eating diseased pork John Viet, a prominent pioneer farmer living near Monroe, and six of his children are in a critical condition. All of them are expected to die.

Trichina in their systems developed within a few days after partaking of the pork. A sample of the meat was sent to the state health department at Vermillion, which reported that it was seriously infected. Physicians then were called in and finally a consultation was held, at which it was decided there was practically no hope of saving Viet and his six children.

Mrs. Viet, an invalid, and an infant escaped.

STANLEY IS COUNTY SEAT

North Dakota Supreme Court Decides Mountrail Case.

Bismarck, N. D., Nov. 17.—Mountrail county will not be stopped from constructing the new courthouse for which a contract was let recently. T. A. McGann of Palermo brought action, seeking to annul the contract and to prevent the erection of the building in Stanley. The case is part of a warfare between Stanley and Palermo over the location of the county seat and was decided by the supreme court.

McGann's charges that the county commissioners were guilty of several irregularities failed to hold and the decision settles the county seat honors in favor of Stanley for all time.

"Rain will set in during Monday over the extreme Northwest," says the weekly bulletin, "reaching the central portion of the country Tuesday and Wednesday."

when the case was again called for

He said he was not aware that a

WARNING ISSUED

Women Soliciting Funds for a Fake Charity, So-Called Orphanage
Home in Kansas City

The public is hereby warned against certain women who have been soliciting funds in various parts of the state for a so-called orphanage in Kansas City. Mo., known as the Walter-Baker Home, or the Joseph-Walter Home, of which Mrs.
Julia Anna Walter-Baker is the manager.

The character of this organization is such that the Associated Charities of Kansas City have refused their endorsement as being unworthy of support. It is well known that Mrs.
Baker and her associates, a few years ago, were compelled to leave Duluth as running a fake charity and were afterwards refused endorsement in Wisconsin for the same reason.

Sometimes these women solicit for the Minnesota Children's Home Society claiming to take the place of our regular representatives. We make this means to warn the public against these people as having no authority from us or connection with us.

To avoid being imposed upon in regard to the Walter-Baker Home, write G. F. Damon, Gen. Sec'y., Associated Charities, Kansas City, Mo.
Rev. R. N. Adams, Pres.
Rev. S. W. Dickinson, Supt.
Children's Home Society of Minnesota, St. Paul, Minn.

For Children There is Nothing Better

A cough medicine for children must help their cough and colds without bad effects on their little stomhoarse breathing, coughs and croup are all quickly helped. H. P. Dunn,

John F. Hurley, Aged 70, Passed Away Sunday Night at Home of Daughter in Cass Lake

AN OLD RESIDENT OF BRAINERD

Mrs. Delia Grondin Died in West
Brainerd—James Quick Died
at Local Hospital

John F. Hurley, aged about 70, died Sunday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank L. Gorenflo, in Cass Lake. The body was sent to Brainerd this noon. Mr. Hurley was a widower, his wife having preceded him to her reward several years ago.
He leaves these children, Ed. Hurley of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. John F.
Russell and John F. Hurley, Jr., of Brainerd; Mrs. L. Gorenflo, of Cass Lake; Herbert Hurley of Grand Forks, N. D.; Mrs. H. E. Davis, of Spokane, Wash. He was born in London, England, and was there married to Miss Catherine Walch. They emigrated to America and for a time Mr. and Mrs. Hurley were residents of Lansing, Mich. They removed to Brainerd in 1881 and for over twenty years Mr. Hurley was employed in the store department of the Northern Pacific railway and also in the roadmaster's department. He was a member many terms of the Brainerd school board and also served as street commissioner. He was a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. For many years he was sachen of the local order of Red Men. Asthma and the infirmities of old age caused his demise. The remains were taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. F.
Russell, 402 South Ninth street. No funeral announcement has been given out, as all of the relatives have not been communicated with. Mr.
Hurley was a pioneer resident of Brainerd and enjoyed a wide acquaintance. He was always pleasant and had a fund of reminiscences of the old days. He was a great believer in Brainerd and its future and nothing pleased him more than to speak well of Brainerd wherever he visited. In 1904 Mr. Hurley and son, John Hurley, Jr., visited London, England, and other places of interest, but in all his travels Mr. Hurley said he found no country to compare with the United States. His old friends mourn his passing away and extend their sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mrs. Delia Grondin, aged about 55, widow of the late Joseph Grondin, Sr., died Sunday morning at her home in West Brainerd. She leaves four sons and four daughters, the children being Fred Grondin, Joseph Grondin, Ed. Grondin, Frank Grondin, Mrs. William H. Nelson, Mrs.
Fred L. Britton, Miss Jennie Grondin and Miss Rose Grondin. The funeral arrangements will not be announced until all the relatives are communicated with.

James Quick, of Morrison county, died at a local hospital today.

Tom Swelland, aged 27 and single, died Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Swelland, ing with bronchitis which later turned to quick consumption. He leaves four brothers and three sisters,

IN DISTRICT COURT

Iron Mountain Mining Co. Does Not Have to Pay Scalucchi $5,000 as He Sued For

The jury brought in a verdict in district court in the case of John Scalucchi vs the Iron Mountain Mining Co., allowing the plaintiff but $159, a balance due on wages. Scalucchi had sued in addition for $5,- 000, claiming such amount had been promised him when he struck iron in the shaft.

This alleged oral contract was offset by contracts between the company and the men which showed that payments in full had been made for Scalucchi's work, less one month's salary where some dispute arose over bills for provisions, for which plaintiff had refused to make deductions.
The attorneys for the Mining company were R. M. Hughes, of Duluth, assisted by Attorney George H. Garner, of Brainerd.

BACK TO BRAINERD

This Community Must Care for Destitute Family Which Attempted to Locate in LaMoure, N. D.

Under the heading "Brainerd Must Care For Family," a special to the Duluth Herald from LaMoure, N.
D., dated November 15, says: "Deported to Brainerd, Minn., Mrs. John Obenchain and seven children were shipped from here together with a car of household goods. Two years ago the woman secured a divorce from her husband and her father took her and the grandchildren back to Brainerd. Recently she arrived in the county with all the children and her furniture. They were in desperate circumstances and the officials took prompt action. Tickets were purchased for the family and the goods reshipped to Minnesota."

RESOLUTION

Whereas, the Knights of Columbus have openly declared their intention to combat the growth of Socialism, And whereas, in carrying out their plan of attack the local body of the Knights of Columbus had Mr. Peter W. Collins deliver a lecture at Garner hall on Friday, Nov. 7,
And Whereas, the speaker, Mr.
Collins, did not treat the subject of Socialism from an economic or social point of view, but in a deliberate and grossly unjust and insulting manner, ridiculed and accused the advocates of Socialism of being "Godless," "Immoral," "Destroyers of the Family," of insidious action attempting to destroy trades unionism and of breeding "illegitimate Discontent" in the hearts and minds of men:

Therefore, be it resolved, that we the members of Brainerd local Socialist party repudiate these grossly unfair charges, and be it Resolved, that this local welcome any and all fair and unbiased discussion of Socialism, and be it further resolved

That this local challenge the local body of "Knights of Columbus" to a joint public debate of this question.
They to secure the ablest speaker possible to attack Socialism, and we to secure a speaker to defend the Social-

GEORGE C. PAYNE FOUND AT CROSBY

Fifth Man Charged With Kidnaping Teodor Sjogren First Seen by Policeman Burud

NOTIFIED COUNTY ATTORNEY

Brought to Brainerd—Tells Judge McClenahan he Did Not Know He Was Wanted at Trial

Night Policeman Andrew Burud, Crosby, saw George C. Payne in Crosby and promptly notified County Attorney G. S. Swanson and the latter ordered Payne's arrest and the man was brought to Brainerd Sunday noon.

Charged with four other defendants with kidnaping one Teodor Sjogren and present at the first trial of the case, when notice was given that all defendants should be present when the case was again called for trial, Payne, in his talk to Judge W. McClenahan in the district court this morning, claimed he did not know he had to appear at this trial. He said he was not aware that a warrant was out for his arrest until it was written from Crosby and that thereupon immediately left his home in Wisconsin where he was visiting his mother, and came to Crosby and gave himself up.

Payne was placed under $500 bonds.

S. E. Swanson has opened a pool and billiard room in the E. C. Bane block on South Seventh street. There are seven tables, made by the Koehler-Hinrichs people, and the furnishings and equipment are of the best. A cigar stand is also conducted.

A church supper will be given at the Norwegian Lutheran church on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week.

O. Vanasse, who has a farm at Gull Lake, Saskatchewan, Canada, is in the county visiting relatives. He says the weather is so mild up north that the farmers in his vicinity are still engaged in plowing. Before leaving he saw two antelope drinking water at the spring on his farm.

GRIM REAPER BUSY SUNDAY

John F. Hurley, Aged 70, Passed Away Sunday Night at Home of Daughter in Cass Lake

AN OLD RESIDENT OF BRAINERD

Mrs. Delia Grondin Died in West Brainerd—James Quick Died at Local Hospital

John F. Hurley, aged about 70, died Sunday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank L. Gorenflo, in Cass Lake. The body was sent to Brainerd this noon. Mr. Hurley was a widower, his wife having preceded him to her reward several years ago. He leaves these children, Ed. Hurley of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. John F. Russell and John F. Hurley, Jr., of Brainerd; Mrs. L. Gorenflo, of Cass Lake; Herbert Hurley of Grand Forks, N. D.; Mrs. H. E. Davis, of Spokane, Wash. He was born in London, England, and was there married to Miss Catherine Walsh. They emigrated to America and for a time Mr. and Mrs. Hurley were residents of Lansing, Mich. They removed to Brainerd in 1881 and for over twenty years Mr. Hurley was employed in the store department of the Northern Pacific railway and also in the roadmaster's department. He was a member many terms of the Brainerd school board and also served as street commissioner. He was a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. For many years he was squire of the local order of Red Men. Asthma and the infirmities of old age caused his demise. The remains were taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. F. Russell, 402 South Ninth street. No funeral announcement has been given out, as all of the relatives have not been communicated with. Mr. Hurley was a pioneer resident of Brainerd and enjoyed a wide acquaintance. He was always pleasant and had a fund of reminiscences of the old days. He was a great believer in Brainerd and its future and nothing pleased him more than to speak well of Brainerd wherever he visited. In 1904 Mr. Hurley and son, John Hurley, Jr., visited London, England, and other places of interest, but in all his travels Mr. Hurley said he found no country to compare with the United States. His old friends mourn his passing away and extend their sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mrs. Delia Grondin, aged about 55, widow of the late Joseph Grondin, Sr., died Sunday morning at her home in West Brainerd. She leaves four sons and four daughters, the children being Fred Grondin, Joseph Grondin, Ed. Grondin, Frank Grondin, Mrs. William H. Nelson, Mrs. Fred L. Britton, Miss Jennie Grondin and Miss Rose Grondin. The funeral arrangements will not be announced until all the relatives are communicated with.

James Quick, of Morrison county, died at a local hospital today.

Tom Swelland, aged 27 and single, died Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Swelland, at Nokay Lake. He had been suffering with bronchitis which later turned to quick consumption. He leaves four brothers and three sisters, who with his parents were at his bedside when he passed away. He was well known in Brainerd, where for a time he was employed at the Iron Exchange Clothing Store and later at Soloski's store. He was a member of the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church. The funeral will be held Tuesday from the home of his parents, Rev. C. Hougstad of Brainerd, officiating. Entombment will be in Maple Grove cemetery. The sympathy of the community is extended the family in its bereavement.

WARNING ISSUED

Women Soliciting Funds for a Fake Charity, So-Called Orphanage Home in Kansas City

The public is hereby warned against certain women who have been soliciting funds in various parts of the state for a so-called orphanage in Kansas City, Mo., known as the Walter-Baker Home or the Joseph-Walter Home, of which Mrs. Anna Walter-Baker is the manager.

The character of this organization is such that the Associated Charities of Kansas City have refused their endorsement as being unworthy of support. It is well known that Mrs. Baker and her associates, a few years ago, were compelled to leave Duluth as running a fake charity and were afterwards refused endorsement in Wisconsin for the same reason.

Sometimes these women solicit for the Minnesota Children's Home Society claiming to take the place of our regular representatives. We make this means to warn the public against these people as having no authority from us or connection with us.

To avoid being imposed upon in regard to the Walter-Baker Home, write G. F. Damon, Gen. Sec'y., Associated Charities, Kansas City, Mo.

IN DISTRICT COURT

Iron Mountain Mining Co. Does Not Have to Pay Scalucchi $5,000 as He Sued For

The jury brought in a verdict in district court in the case of John Scalucchi vs the Iron Mountain Mining Co., allowing the plaintiff but $159, a balance due on wages. Scalucchi had sued in addition for $5,000, claiming such amount had been promised him when he struck iron in the shaft.

This alleged oral contract was offset by contracts between the company and the men which showed that payments in full had been made for Scalucchi's work, less one month's salary where some dispute arose over bills for provisions, for which plaintiff had refused to make deductions. The attorneys for the Mining company were R. M. Hughes, of Duluth, assisted by Attorney George H. Gardner, of Brainerd.

This Community Must Care for Destitute Family Which Attempted to Locate in LaMoure, N. D.

Under the heading "Brainerd Must Care For Family," a special to the Duluth Herald from LaMoure, N. D., dated November 15, says: "Deported to Brainerd, Minn., Mrs. John Obenchain and seven children were shipped from here together with a car of household goods. Two years ago the woman secured a divorce from her husband and her father took her and the grandchildren back to Brainerd. Recently she arrived in the county with all the children and her furniture. They were in destitute circumstances and the officials took prompt action. Tickets were purchased for the family and the goods reshipped to Minnesota."

RESOLUTION

Whereas, the Knights of Columbus have openly declared their intention to combat the growth of Socialism, and whereas, in carrying out their plan of attack the local body of the Knights of Columbus had Mr. Peter W. Collins deliver a lecture at Gardner hall on Friday, Nov. 7,

And Whereas, the speaker, Mr. Collins, did not treat the subject of Socialism from an economic or social point of view, but in a deliberate and grossly unjust and insulting manner, ridiculed and accused the advocates of Socialism of being "Godless," "Immoral," "Destroyers of the Family," of insidious action attempting to destroy trades unionism and of breeding "illegitimate discontent" in the hearts and minds of men:

Therefore, be it resolved, that we the members of Brainerd local Socialist party repudiate these grossly unfair charges, and be it

Resolved, that this local welcome any and all fair and unbiased discussion of Socialism, and be it further resolved

That this local challenge the local lodge of "Knights of Columbus" to a joint public debate of this question. They to secure the ablest speaker possible to attack Socialism, and we to secure a speaker to defend the Socialist position. The details of the debate to be arranged by mutual agreement, and be it further resolved, That a committee of five members of this local be appointed and given full authority to act in behalf of this local.
